only affected. She returned to Mason and grew weak. Her weight was 108 pounds, and she gradually became weaker. She was attended by Dr. Wm. F. Hult, who says he had a serious case on his hands. The 31st day of last January she was taken down stairs into the chapel and offered a prayer. Since that time she has been in bed, a helpless invalid. She has had fifteen to twenty hemorrhages, and has suffered very much from a cough. Her breathing was hard and her lungs pained her very much. She had eaten scarcely enough to sustain life, and had repeatedly asked that she be allowed to die and to receive her of her suffering. About a month ago she became so ill that her death was looked for every hour. She pleaded to be allowed to die. She lay on her back perfectly helpless, and was unable to turn over, having weakened to sixty-seven pounds. She was told by her friends that it was her duty to suffer a prayer for her recovery. She refused to allow them to pray for her, but finally was persuaded to offer a novena of nine days to the miraculous image of our Lady of Perpetual Help. This picture is from the original in the Church of the Redeemers in Rome, and has touched the original. It was blessed by Pope XIII., and placed in the academy about a year ago. To this picture she lay and offered her daily prayer. She began on the 24th, and Sunday, feeling better, she was able to wear apparel to her companions, and prepared to die by making her confession to Father R. J. Conroy, a Jesuit, a Resurrectionist. Monday she offered her rosary, and immediately afterward became imbued with new life, strength and health. She walked in her bed, and was helped up. She dressed and walked down stairs to join her mystified companions. She said she felt perfectly well, and began to sing. She afterward walked over to the lot and sat in a chair. She drank five glasses of milk, and her appetite was good. Her lungs were examined to day and found in good condition.

WESTERN RANGES.

Cattle Shipments from Dakota and Montana.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 30.—Cattle shipments to and from Montana and Dakota have largely increased this season. The Continental Live Stock Company, of Montana, have 4,000 head of cattle on their range. Belle Fourche and Little Missouri rivers. They have shipped from Dickinson 7,500 head of cattle, and are now shipping. They have 170 cars for stock ordered for the Northern Pacific Road this week. J. A. Irwin, of Bonanza, has 40,000 head of beefs on the same rivers, and have shipped 3,750 head already this year, and are now shipping. The Western Cattle Company has three herds on the road now, driving in for shipment. Bickley herd, of Montana, ship 110 cars of cattle, and are now shipping. The next two weeks 4,000 head. On their range on the Little Missouri they have 10,000 head of cattle. Clark & Plumb have a large herd on the road to Dickinson for shipment. Altogether, the Northern Pacific Road will have 10,000 head of cattle on their range, including cars ordered for the balance of this week, this season over 5,000 cars of beefs, or 40,000 head, from Montana and Dakota. The road expects to ship 75,000 head before the close of the season. To the ranges in Montana and Western Dakota, the Northern Pacific have shipped 29,000 head of cattle, and two-year-olds this season from Iowa, Wisconsin and Minnesota. These will come back to the East as beefs the second or third season out, according to their grades. The Powder River Cattle Company has 60,000 head of cattle on its range at Superior City, on which cattle pens and pens will be built, where cattle may be kept until ready for shipment by boat to Toledo, Detroit and Buffalo. This method of shipping will be pursued by this company until direct shipments can be made to Europe. They will ship from Superior City this season 1,000 head and 5,000 next year.

An Iowa Liquor Dealer's Protest.

DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 30.—Considerable excitement was caused on the street this morning by the display of a huge muslin placard, which bore the following: "The saloons of Louis Fritz, which was yesterday closed by order of injunction. The placard was inscribed: 'Convicted before proven guilty.' With information served. Motion to restrain the sale thereof of any intoxicating liquors, while no such charge has as yet been proven in any court of law. The right of trial by jury practically denied. Saloon keepers shall not have recourse to due process of law. The murderer, the thief, are given a trial by jury, while a saloon-keeper is summarily dealt with, fined and imprisoned before he is given a chance to defend himself in a criminal court. The Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of Iowa are plainly violated.' So long as Fritz could sell, give, feed and abuse and spend he kept his saloon open, but when forced to shut up or go to jail, he shut up."

Trouble With the Modocs.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The Modoc Indians upon the Quapaw Reservation, in the Indian Territory, have telegraphed to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs that their agent, Ridpath, is a bad man, and they want him removed. The agent had been attempting, through the Indian police, to arrest an Indian who was beating his wife, whereupon the Modocs fortified themselves in a building. The Commissioner of Indian Affairs has informed the Indians that they must allow the offender to be tried before a court of Indians selected by the agent.

Postmaster's Daughter Stabbed.

WOODFIELD, O., Sept. 30.—Thieves entered the postoffice at Minerva last night, and stole $50 in money and $500 in stamps. They were leaving the postoffice, and were in the effort to capture them, Katie Richards, the postmaster's daughter, was fatally stabbed. The robbers escaped with their booty.

The Soudan.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—It is very probable that Power's dispatch to the Times, giving the particulars of Gordon's heroic defense at Khartoum, will cause a revolution in the Egyptian policy in regard to the Soudan, and compel it to reconsider the intention of abandoning the country.

ADVANTAGES OF OREGON

The Climate is Unsurpassed and the Fruit Simply Immense.

But, When One Studies the Murder Crop Closely, It Simply Lays All Those Seductive Advantages in the Balmey Shade.

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 30.—The Portland Board of Trade, in its annual report issued last evening, speaks of the progress made by the city and State, devotes particular attention to the advantages of the Willamette Valley, which embraces a country larger than the State of Massachusetts, with climate unsurpassed; encourages immigration, but condemns the deception practiced on immigrants in the West; favors improvement of the Willamette and Columbia rivers, and sets forth the advantages of the great water power of the State. The document is elaborate, but contains no business statistics.

Business throughout the State has been languid for several months, but is now reviving through the advance in wheat and eastern demand for Oregon fruit. The crop of fruit of all kinds is immense, and the quality fine.

CRIME.

Sunday officers succeeded in capturing Frank Reed, the fugitive murderer, who stalked Frank Bernier to death at Toledo in Washington Territory, a few days ago. After committing the murder Reed fled to the mountains, but was closely pursued and captured. The prisoner is in custody, no bail being taken.

In the Circuit Court yesterday Lee Song, a Chinese desperado, who murdered Wong Bang, a countryman, was sentenced to be hanged November 2.

At Spokane Falls, in Washington Territory, Sunday night, H. R. Roberts, a quiet and sensible citizen, was shot and immediately killed by Jack Conroy, a notorious rough and desperado. The tragedy occurred in a large saloon, which was crowded with people. By accident Holman Jones, an Oregonian, who, drawing a pistol, shot him dead. During the excitement following Conroy made his escape, and after a chase making a killing, and soon captured the ruffian. The officers, to prevent his being mobbed, conveyed him to Cheney, where he is now in custody. Public indignation is intense over the murder and Conroy will probably be lynched.

HUMORS OF THE CAMPAIGN.

Belva Lockwood Wants to Meet Her Opponents and Talk Matters Over.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The following letter was received to-day: "Belva Lockwood is the Woman Suffrage candidate for the Presidency."

HON. GROVER CLEVELAND.

DEAR SIR: Although but a political novice, it may have occurred to you that the unscrupulousness and cunning of the present campaign are not only calculated to cause a deleterious influence upon the masses of the people, but also to cause a deleterious influence upon the masses of the people. I feel assured that had your own wisdom and indignation been consulted with reference to the present campaign, and that it contained much redoubt to the degradation of the people, and that it was a disgraceful proceeding, I am induced to address you in this manner. I feel assured that had your own wisdom and indignation been consulted with reference to the present campaign, and that it contained much redoubt to the degradation of the people, and that it was a disgraceful proceeding, I am induced to address you in this manner. EXTINCTION OF THE BUFFALO.

The "Catch" Much Reduced, Owing to the Wholesale Slaughter.

ST. PAUL, Sept. 30.—A curious feature of a new important trade in this city to-day is the fact that the entire "catch" of buffalo robes this year is only four. Last year the "catch" was 10,000. In 1881, the year after the Northern Pacific Road was built, the "catch" to the Little Missouri, northwestern tribes got in about 100,000 robes. The railway line through the hills built by the Northern Pacific happened to be south of the line and within reaching distance of the Little Missouri, and the output was large. Thousands upon thousands were killed whose hides were never removed; and of these thousands a large majority furnish only a few pounds of bison-tongue for the rapacious riflemen. There has been talk for years about a time when the buffalo would be practically extinct. Now that time has come, and it is too late for protective laws. Such laws could not have been enforced against the Indians, but they might have been against the white hide hunters, who are rich sportsmen, who were the most wanton death-dealers of the lot. The buffalo have disappeared from the face of Dakota and Montana, and from the remainder of the Northwest as well. The remnants of the big band, numbering probably a few thousand, are some of the north. Internationally, no one seems to know clearly where, but probably in the remote vicinity of Woody Mountain. There are a few on the upper Missouri, and a few on the plains between the James River and the Missouri, and about the forty-fifth parallel. An old bull was recently driven into Fort Meade, with a lot of domestic cattle, or the cowboys. He looked like the last of his race and it is any fellows they can't be found.

The buffalo can be crossed with domestic cattle, but the hybrid, while furnishing good meat, is not of much use for robes. The robes tanned in the East, or by whites anywhere, are incomparably inferior to those known to the trade as Indian tanned. The Indians take much pains and seem to have a method which, while it leaves the hide pliable, leaves it of sufficient thickness and strength to hold the hair and withstand rough usage.

GOLD MINE EXCITEMENT.

The Regular Monthly Advertisement Comes Along as Usual.

PORT KNOX, M. T., Sept. 30.—The excitement over the gold discoveries in the Little Rocky Mountains is greater than ever, and stampede are pushing into the mines in great numbers from all sides. Fifty prospectors left Fort Benton ten days ago with Mackinac boats loaded with winter supplies which they floated down the Missouri to Rocky Point, only eighteen miles distant from the Little Rocky Mountains. From Rocky Point is a good one, and a vehicle of any kind can be driven right up to the mine without the aid of cowboys from the Judith and Mansfield basins have stopped herding cattle and gone into the mines. Nearly all the civilian employees of the Government have left Fort Benton for the Little Rocky Point. They are there to remain until spring. At least 500 or 600 gold seekers will winter in the mountains. Every wagon and pack animal in the vicinity is being used for hauling supplies into the gulches for those who intend to winter there. Although the new mines are on an Indian reservation, no attempt is being made, either by the Indian Department or the Government, to expel the intruders.

BLESSED IS THE PEACEMAKER.

For He Shall Inherit the Kingdom of Heaven.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 30.—Early Tuesday morning two Chinamen were observed by residents of San Francisco, in Mercer County, were making a killing, and, on being questioned, stated that they intended that one or the other should be an occupant of the coffin before night. They were not further attention was paid to the matter by the citizens. About 1 o'clock in the afternoon the Chinaman met, seemingly by appointment, at the scene of their labors, and began firing at each other with revolvers. Ah Yung, a Chinese overseer, placed himself between them, and, with a disarmament. The other placed his pistol to Ah Yung's ear and fired, blowing the head of the unfortunate man to atoms. After Ah Yung fell, another Chinaman fired into the body of the mercant. Both of the remaining Chinamen then took to the woods, although one of them was wounded in the blood. Both are supposed to be wounded. The dead man had borne a good character, and was much liked by his employer.

Eating Pig's Food.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—An instance of the dire distress experienced by some families in Sunderland has just been discovered. A lady who kept a pig in the back part of her house, having her suspicions aroused, watched on her step, and was surprised at dusk to see a man and woman approach the trough and scoop out the food. The lady then put in for the animal's meal. The lady followed the couple to their home, and after allowing a few minutes for the man to enter into the house, and was surprised to see five little children sitting round a table and piggy devouring the food taken from her pig's trough.

The Chinese Moon Feast.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—On Thursday every Chinaman in the world who gets a chance will gaze at the moon for an hour, and will celebrate the event by many festivities as his pocketbook will permit. The chief festivity is the giving and eating of moon cakes. These are round, like the American pie, but are cakes filled with a mixture of watermelon seed, almonds, walnuts, and a Chinese nut called ginkgo, and are eaten with wine, with quince jelly. Moon feasts will be given on Thursday evening by the leading merchants and traders in Mott street.

An Old Time Democrat.

New Orleans, Sept. 30.—The National Convention of the First Congressional District nominated Louis St. Martin. St. Martin is one of the oldest Democrats in the South, having served six years of office, and having held various political offices in antebellum days, serving one term in Congress under Buchanan's Presidency. He was the first Democrat elected to Congress from his State after the war, but was refused admission until Louisiana should be reconstructed. He is of Creole descent, and was a very strict party man.

Sour Grapes.

NEWPORT, Mich., Sept. 27.—Henry Hoffman, a wealthy farmer living four miles west of here, caught a new snake in his field last night, and demanded his name or he would shoot him. The man started to run, Hoffman fired, the ball taking effect in the back of Perry Berdson, a neighbor. Hoffman gives no hope of his recovery. He is a hard case.

Thirty-Three Convicts Sent Up.

PORT HARMON, Ark., Sept. 30.—The United States Marshal left Monday for Detroit, Michigan, having in charge thirty-three convicts, sentenced to the House of Correction there. This is the largest number at one time, and is the harvest of the August term of the United States Court here.

CONDENSED NEWS.

SICKNESS has broken out among the British soldiers at Douglas, and a number of them are confined to hospitals.

The Dublin authorities have received numerous requests from farmers to take protection, alleging they are receiving letters threatening to destroy their property by fire.

ROBERT CARMAN, a New York bartender, shot Monday night's thief, and his murderer, David Degnan, is locked up.

At Genoa there were sixty-six new cases of cholera and forty-seven deaths during the past twenty-four hours. There were a few new cases and thirty-two deaths.

THERE are eight hundred and seventy-two white Republican voters in Mason County and two hundred and one of them headed by Mr. Wadsworth refused to vote for Asbury, a colored candidate regularly nominated by a Republican convention. There are nine hundred and ninety-nine colored Republican voters in the county, a majority of one hundred and twenty-seven, who are now being lured into line to support Mr. Wadsworth, who refused to vote for their candidate. The colored people have the power to put their feet down upon Mr. Wadsworth's boom and crush the life out of it just as he did in crushing Asbury's. Will they have the independence to do it, or will they walk up and kiss the hand that struck them, at the risk of the hand bell?

A CAREFUL calculation shows that there are precisely 1,871 Republican voters in this county. Of this number 999 are colored, men and 872 are whites. The former have a majority of 127 votes, and control the Republican strength in eight of the thirteen precincts. And, although they have the power to require the Republican party of Mason county to do as they please in political matters, they are contented to be hewers of wood and drawers of water for the organization, and to spring forward promptly to obey the commands of their white Republican bosses at the tinkling of a little bell. Brer Thomas and Brer Scroggins were snuggled into Mayville on Monday to convince the colored folks who constitute the majority of the Republican party of Mason County, that it is their duty to continue to acknowledge their servitude to their white Republican brethren.

In trying to defend Mr. Wadsworth from what the BULLETIN has written of him the Eagle says: "Arms against arms—pardon immunity restoration to all rights of property and person to all who submit; this was what he taught and for which he eloquently contended."

If Mr. Wadsworth ever preached that doctrine he never practiced it. He never once raised his voice against the arrest and imprisonment of his fellow citizens who were guilty of crime, and were not charged with any. In 1868 he refused to vote for Seymour for President, who was a candidate upon a platform demanding that Southern States should be given representation in Congress, and the power of self-government guaranteed by the constitution, but on the contrary, he voted for Grant, who was the representative of the principle that the Southern States and the Southern people had no rights that anybody was bound to respect. The history of the reconstruction measures of Grant's administration are well known, and if Mr. Wadsworth's record does not speak falsely of him, no warmer supporter of them than he was, could have been found in the Eagle to continue to paint Mr. Wadsworth as a sucking dove.

"Tell the Truth."

One of the editors, and at least one correspondent of the Apostolic Times, have left it their duty to warn their readers "as Christian men, against the crime of being parties to the elevation of licentiousness to the highest position of political honor in the land," by voting for Governor Cleveland. But it seems that they have not left it their duty to warn their readers against this of their other candidates. Why is this? It is certainly not because the crime of licentiousness, dishonesty and corruption have been brought against the other candidates.

The Times also informs its readers that a Democratic paper, the New York Sun, refuses to support Mr. Cleveland on account of his private character. But it fails to publish the fact that this same paper, with singular inconsistency, gives its support to the candidate who has been accused of violating almost every command in the decalogue and that the most powerful and influential Republican papers in New York have repudiated Mr. Blaine because of charges affecting his character public and private, and have declared for Mr. Cleveland. Of one other fact the Times fails to inform its readers, namely, that the crime which Mr. Cleveland is charged with is crime of early manhood. And of still another fact, that when asked by a friend who wished to defend him, what he should say in his defense, he had the courage and manliness to reply, "Tell the truth."

In regard to this charged Bishop Huxington, of Syracuse New York, in an interview with a reporter of the Springfield Republican, says: "Believing as I do that this is a thing of the past, and no part of my present character, I shall certainly vote for him. He does not look to me like a man of the past, and is not living a dissolute man. According to the Christianity which I teach we are to forgive, and as I understand that he is living an honorable life in the present, I see no reason why I should not cast my vote for the reform Governor, Grover Cleveland."

J. B. McGINN.

THE BLAINE TOURISTS

En Route Through Ohio—The Scene at Toledo.

TOLEDO, Sept. 30.—Upon his arrival here Mr. Blaine was driven to Logan Park, where a crowd of 25,000 was assembled. Prolonged cheers arose as Blaine alighted from his carriage. A globe club furnished music, following which Mr. Blaine was introduced into great cheering. He spoke as follows:

"I should at any time deem it unprofitable to make a speech at a place where I am a guest. I should, in my present position, deem it improper. I should rather be the victim of slanders than the author of it. [Applause.] But there are some things which I have not deemed it wise to leave to the politicians that I do, to call your attention to. The Republican party has governed the country for thirty years in the spirit of the Government. Now, to remain this Government to the control of our opponents, who do not believe in the maintenance of the measures which have given this progress, would be a step backwards, into the dark, and when we are asked to do this, we are not permitted to regard it as merely one of expediency, but as a question of principle. It is unconstitutional, and there is no one of the great forward measures which the Republican party has taken since the inauguration of Mr. Lincoln, that the Democratic party has not opposed and not considered unconstitutional. [Applause.] So that to remain the Democratic party is not merely a change of measures. It is civil revolution. It is a giving to the Democratic party of the State rights the precedence in that grand struggle which has been made only under the banner of the Republican party. It is a broad place that the Republican party has done us the honor to present me as a candidate before you. It is on that broad plane, with all that it implies, that I am before you and before the whole United States today." (Long and continued applause.)

Judge Wm. H. West followed with a speech. Mr. Blaine was driven to the Boody House, with a cheering crowd of several thousand following. He dined at 7 o'clock. At half past 7 he was driven to the rooms of the "Boody House," where he held an informal reception. Shortly after 8 o'clock Mr. Blaine and party were conveyed to a grand stand at the corner of Cherry and Summit streets, where Blaine reviewed an immense procession. During the passing of the procession Mr. Blaine spoke briefly to the Blaine and Logan Guards, and thanked the people of Toledo for their generous welcome. At 11 o'clock Mr. Blaine returned to his hotel where he held an informal reception until 12 o'clock, when he retired, exhausted by the exciting events of the day.

A RIVAL IN DEMOCRACY.

At night Toledo was ablaze with excitement. Both of the great political parties held large meetings, and massed in parades thousands of men. The Democrats first assembled at 8 o'clock on Monday night, and the postponement of Blaine's visit from Saturday made it necessary for the Republicans to change the date of their demonstration from Saturday night to this evening. Two rival processions, one Democratic and one Republican, marched down the main street, and the principal streets. A large number of Democrats assembled in front of the Boody House, while Blaine was at dinner. A crowd of several thousand gathered in Cleveland and Hendricks. At certain street intersections the two dual processions became brawls. Free trade and protection banners were hoisted on the floats of Blaine and Cleveland were carried side by side. Musicians were perched as to which party they were part of.

The Republicans held mass meetings in various parts of the city. Speeches were made by Hon. George A. Storrs, Judge Parker, and Hon. B. E. Brown, of Mississippi. The enthusiasm of both political parties was unbounded. It was successful from both a Democratic and Republican standpoint.

TOLEDO, O., Sept. 30.—Blaine arrived at 7:30 P. M. today morning. At 8:30 he was presented to a grand stand of the men of Toledo in the parlors of the hotel. He said: "I am glad to meet you. The pending contests in which, if it does not interest business men, will interest nobody. It is a preliminary contest for the man in advance of his business. The country is in a very great deal of a hurry to have organized to that end. It is to the interest of business men in this country to be active in this campaign. Gentlemen, I thank you."

Mr. Blaine was then introduced to each individual by the party, after which he was driven to a depot. Just before 10 the train left Toledo. Hon. Henry Storrs, Register, and Senator Flinn, and Governor Fenton, joined the party at the last moment. The special car carrying the Tiffin Recreation Committee was also attached to the train. It was occupied that it would meet Blaine in Cincinnati Thursday evening.

WILL GO TO MICHIGAN. DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 30.—Mr. Blaine will arrive at Detroit on the afternoon of the 1st of October, and remain in the State three days, including Sunday.

A Captain's Wife and Two of the Crew Go Down. PENNSYLVANIA, Pa., Sept. 30.—The schooner Rebecca M. Walls, from Philadelphia, arrived here yesterday. Her captain reported having been in collision with the brig Leonora Meyer, from New York City. The brig was in a sinking condition before the collision, from heavy weather. For three days the wind had been blowing a hurricane and the sea was rolling almost mountain high. The captain and two of the crew were lost. The captain and wife and two of the crew were brought to this port on the Walls. Captain Davis says his vessel was sinking before she came in a fleet with the schooner, and the rescue of himself and the five others was almost miraculous.

Great Excitement on the Chicago Board of Trade. CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—One of the most exciting scenes ever known on the Board of Trade occurred at 1 o'clock at the close of business Tuesday. Ninety-cent bids were made for a half million lots of September corn by a clique, while actual sales were made as high as 87 cents on smaller lots. A panic movement prevailed. The din of voices was terrible. It is reported that eight cars were sold at 80 cents, deliverable at 3 P. M., and nine cars were sold about the same time on the other side of the pit at 85 cents. It is said that as low as 25 cents was offered for September corn on one side of the pit, while on the other frightened shorts were bidding as high as 53 cents. Some heavy failures are looked for.

A Colored Preacher in Trouble.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 30.—Sheriff Ward, of Logan County, Kentucky, arrived here yesterday with a prisoner, Rev. Henry White, alias Washington, charged with branding old man Howard, at Whippoorwill, Kentucky. Governor Butts, of Tennessee, refused to grant a warrant on account of the informality of the requisition. Sixteen pastors of Rev. White's church called at his place of confinement, and pleaded with him to release their pastor. White is only twenty-four years old, is good looking and muscular, and stands very high in the regard of his congregation. He refused to go with the Kentucky officers, because he says they want to give the mob a chance to lynch him.

McCallough Breaking Down.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—McCallough appeared at McVicker's Theater last night in the "Gladiator" and only got through with frequent promptings. It was plain that he was breaking down. In the pathetic death scenes which ended the tragedy he broke down completely and several in the audience hissed and made coarse remarks. Mr. McCallough came before the curtain and said to the audience that if they had suffered as he did they would be more lenient toward him. The audience was then dispersed. It is not believed he can last the engagement through.

Found near Mutilated Body.

BUDORF, Conn., Sept. 30.—Polly Sherwood, servant of the late John F. Ford, who was killed at the battle of Gettysburg, was found near the body of a man who was killed in the same place. She never reached her destination, and the body was found in a swamp near the village. The flesh and limbs were torn from the body, it is thought, by dogs. It is believed the man became deranged in the swamp and lost his way.

Ring the bell softly
The crane on your toe
The break of the Eagle
Has filled us with woe;
We shut up its mouth,
But not how it speaks,
After all of our ealing,
The blasted thing leaks.

This river is falling slowly to-day.
The wrecks of the steamers Morning Mail and Bonanza are to be sold at auction.

The efforts of the Republicans to keep the Eagle quiet to their great chagrin has been a failure.

A ROUBABOUT named James Kinney, was drowned from the Steamer Spruick opposite this city last Friday.

The cabin of the new steamer Big Sandy, was destroyed by fire at the establishment of Elias Ehler, who made it.

The registers for the public schools of this county have been received by the commissioner and are now ready for delivery to the teachers.

In the family of Mr. Jacob Marsh, of Charleston Bottom there are eight voters and all of them are Democrats and will vote for Cleveland, Hendricks and Powers.

By invitation, Messrs. George R. Gill and John L. Whitaker will address the Cleveland and Hendricks club at Mayfield, on Saturday evening the 4th inst. at 7:30 o'clock.

MR. WADSWORTH voted for the editor of the Eagle when he was a candidate for Congress in 1867 and was his attorney at Louisville some years ago. He is simply discharging a debt of gratitude.

MR. JAMES REDMOND, the present incumbent, and Mr. Henry Hasson, present deputy Marshal, are candidates for Marshal at the election in January. Their announcements appear elsewhere.

A NUMBER of despatches were received in Mayville yesterday, urging the Republicans to send delegations to swell the Blaine reception crowd at Cincinnati. The frantic appeals were in vain as very few persons responded.

A LETTER received by the BULLETIN from Miss Belle A. Leitch states that she will return to Mayville some time this month for the purpose of resuming her wood carving class. Her friends will be pleased to welcome her back.

That ringing of the hand bell to summon the colored folk to the court house had about it the smack of slavery days. Do they acknowledge themselves the slaves of the Republican bosses that they answer at the tinkle of a little bell?

The Cleveland, Hendricks and Powers club organized last night will have in less than a week, no less than one thousand members. The Democrats were never more thoroughly aroused in the history of the county.

JUDGE EMERY WHITAKER will address the people of Orangeburg next Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock with a view of organizing a Cleveland, Hendricks and Powers Club. By invitation he will address on Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock the Cleveland and Hendricks club at Burtonville.

The colored men who answer so promptly the little hand bell should not forget that Mr. Wadsworth once said in Congress: "I prefer the white man to New England for a soldier to any negro in America; he is a nobler and better guardian of our flag and honor." That is Mr. Wadsworth's opinion of you, but all the same when the little bell rings you are expected to jump.

The Democrats of Mayville precincts No. 1 and 2, and Chester who have not yet joined the Cleveland and Hendricks club of this city can do so by sending their names to James H. Salles, Secretary or Thomas R. Phister, E. L. Worthington or M. F. Marsh, assistant secretaries of the club. Remember there is no initiation fee or dues. Let the good work go on. Call on the secretaries and enroll your names at once.

Cleveland and Hendricks Clubs.

Pursuant to notice the Democrats of Mayville met last night at the quarterly court room for the purpose of organizing a Democratic club. On motion Thos. J. Chenoweth was unanimously elected permanent chairman. James H. Salles, Thomas R. Phister, E. L. Worthington and M. F. Marsh, Esq., were elected Secretaries. Richard Dawson, D. C. Frazer, Dr. H. C. Morris, G. S. Wall, Judge Wm. P. Coons, Dan. Perrine, Dr. James Shackelford, Captain George W. Tudor and Henry Dietrich were made Vice Presidents of the club. On motion the following gentlemen were appointed a committee on rules and regulations: A. G. S. Wall, Thomas M. Wood and Dr. A. G. Browning. Mr. R. B. Lovel was elected Treasurer without opposition. The Secretaries were instructed to correspond with the various clubs of the county and obtain names of members and report same to this club at its next meeting. Colonel Richard Dawson, Judge Emery Whitaker and Thomas R. Phister made short speeches which were well received. The club enrolled in less than one hour one hundred and thirty-two names of good and true men. A motion prevailed to adjourn until next Friday evening at seven o'clock.

Death of A. J. Egnew.

Mr. A. J. Egnew, whose illness has been noticed in the BULLETIN, died at his home in this city on Tuesday about noon, after an illness of ten days from inflammatory rheumatism. His death was a great shock to his many friends who had hoped for his restoration to health. Mr. Egnew was one of Mayville's leading business men, and a prominent and useful citizen. During the war he served as a soldier on the side of the South in Company F, of the Second Kentucky Infantry, and is remembered by his comrades in arms as a brave and efficient man. The news of his death will be received by his many friends here and elsewhere with sincere sorrow. The remains were taken to Millersburg to-day at noon for interment.

Sales of Land.

The following list transfers of real estate have been recorded at the office of the County Clerk, since our last report:
James F. Lee and wife to G. R. Bartley, lot in Woodville; consideration, $40.
R. M. Maltby and wife to John J. Ryan, lot in Washington; consideration, $50.
Milton F. Johnson to John Johnson, upper interest in eighty acres of land on Upper Mill Creek; consideration, $100.
Manuel J. Nowar and wife to William H. Judd, grantor, about one hundred and one acres of land near Dover; consideration, $100.
Sarah A. Burgess to Frank T. Ryder, lot in Chester; consideration, $25.
John M. Cox and wife to John J. Cobb, lot in Chester; consideration, $50.
S. M. Mix and wife to R. F. Smith, lot on south side of Fifth street; consideration, $12.
Sarah C. Williams to R. F. Williams, eight acres, two roads and twenty poles of land on Flat Fork Creek; consideration, $100.
Annabelle Williams to C. W. Williams, twelve and one-half acres of land on Flat Fork Creek; consideration, $100.
Maudie Eitel to Louis Schaeferman, house and two lots of land on Second street in First Ward; consideration, $200.

Notice Cleveland and Hendricks Clubs.

For the purpose of effecting a perfect organization of the Democrats of this county, the Secretaries or Presidents of the various Cleveland and Hendricks clubs throughout the county are requested to forward a complete list of their members to James H. Salles, Secretary of the club in this city. It is hoped this will be attended to promptly as the election is not far off.

COUNTY NOTES.

Mayslick.

A protracted meeting is in progress at the Christian Church, Rev. Jas. F. Russell, of Rev. Marshall, of Richmond, Ky.

The colored fair opened with a flourish Tuesday. The clouds have thrown something of a "damp" over their "fair" prospects. The fair is expected to close early in the week.

Capital J. A. Jackson, well and favorably known as your esteemed correspondent from Cape, is dangerously ill, suffering from intestinal inflammation. His friends at Mayville and his physicians here are encouraged with only a ray of hope.

Elmer Walter Smith, an agent and much valued friend of the town, has returned on a visit to relatives in Kansas to be absent three weeks. His protracted meeting will feel his absence and will miss his genial conversation to no deeds which his spoliess presence ever made.

Millwood.

Dr. Daugherty and son, Hon. R., returned from the Cincinnati Exposition Friday Evening. They were well and returned home.

Miss Alice Ballou, of Fairmount, who has been visiting at the home of Dr. H. H. and Mayville, returned to her home Saturday last.

Brother Kendrick, of Lexington, Ky., filled the pulpit at the Christian Church Sunday last. He is a man of great ability and a visit to relatives in Kansas to be absent three weeks. His protracted meeting will feel his absence and will miss his genial conversation to no deeds which his spoliess presence ever made.

Thos. Cohen, of Helena Station, was the 3rd best.

Thos. Cohen, of Helena Station, was the 3rd best in the county in the contest for the best of the year. He was a member of the team that won the prize at the county fair.

Burn This Telegram.

My Dear Elkins—How do you think a sun-drover would work in about now? Yours sincerely, J. E. B. D. H.

My Dear Blaine—I'm afraid in this cold weather it wouldn't go down. Burn this telegram. Yours, Steve.

OBITUARY.

Died, at the home of her parents, near Donnell, Pettie County, Ky., Mrs. FANNIE L. BROWNING passed into the heaven of happiness and rest, the evening of September 21, 1884. Her death was a great loss to the family and the community.

She was a woman of great piety and a devoted mother. She was born in the year 1810 and lived for 74 years. She was a member of the Methodist Church and was a very active worker in the same.

Her funeral services were held on Sunday, the 23rd inst., at 10 o'clock, at the residence of her son, Mr. J. E. Brown. The interment was made in the cemetery near Donnell.

A CONFLICT OF OUTLAWS

In Which Two Alleged Highwaymen are Shot Down.

An Organized Band of Robbers Depredating in Tennessee—A Black Brute Kills His Wife and Child with a Hatchet.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 30.—A special from Berlin, Somerset County, says: The authorities of Somerset County are looking for a big, strapping negro named Jim Smith, who shot down and killed two men in cold blood. Smith is from Kentucky, and came to this part of the country last winter. He started a saloon to draw the custom of the laborers on the South Pennsylvania Railroad, and he got so much of it that he is reputed to be worth several thousand dollars.

The railroad, a few miles from this place, will pass through a long tunnel, now being constructed, and known as the Allegheny Mountain tunnel. Several hundred men, white and black, are employed in its construction, and when pay-day comes it is always a great day in camp.

For a few days a gang of negroes from Virginia, fifteen in number, and known as the "Mulligan Niggers," had been hanging round the works, waiting for the men to be paid off. It is said by the railroad men that they never do any work and are regularly organized for robbery, being constantly armed. When the men were paid off they began their depredations. As the workmen went up the mountain to Smith's place they would be confronted by these highwaymen, who would demand money at the point of revolvers. Several of the white laborers were robbed in this way.

Between Jim Smith, the Kentucky negro, and his followers and these Virginia blacks there has been no love lost. It was whispered that the Mulligans intended to attack Smith and rob him.

On Saturday his place was the scene of high carousals. Colored men and whites drank and fought and Smith became alarmed at the stories brought to him that the Virginia negroes intended to attack him. His family took refuge in a neighboring cabin and he swore that he would kill all eighty Virginia highwaymen that crossed his path.

The opportunity came Sunday morning, when he opened fire on two of them in front of his saloon and killed them both. At one he fired twice and missed both times. "Don't shoot me," cried his victim, throwing up both hands, but Smith would not listen to any supplications for mercy, and while the laborers in the neighborhood poked their heads through windows and craned their necks around doors in a frightened manner, Smith fired a third time, his victim falling, pierced through the heart.

No one dared stop Smith, and as soon as he realized what he had done, he disappeared through the trees and escaped. No one knows where he has gone.

A Band of Robbers.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 30.—The authorities of Clay, Putnam, Jackson and Smith counties are in search of a band of robbers who have been operating in the Upper Cumberland section for some time. These men have secret hiding places in the mountains, and send stolen property to Kentucky to be disposed of. The last reported is that of Fowler, Plummer & Co.'s safe, at Butler Landing, Clay County, $10,000 being taken. A large portion of the money belonged to farmers, who placed it on deposit for safe keeping. A hot battle was fought in the event these in pursuit came up with the band.

A Black Brute.

BURLINGTON, Ia., Sept. 30.—George Williams, a negro, yesterday attacked his wife with a hatchet, inflicting five or six severe wounds on her hand and face. The woman escaped down stairs covered with blood. Williams then struck his little daughter, six years of age, and she fell senseless to the floor. Thinking he had killed both woman and child, he walked out on the street and was arrested. The woman's injuries may prove fatal. Jealousy was the motive for the deed.

SOMEWHAT MIXED.

A White Woman's Troubles—A Murder and a Lynching.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 30.—Yesterday morning at Kingston Station, Sheriff Moore of this county, and a policeman overtook Sam Lee, who murdered Wm. Warford on Friday at Clinton place, near this city. Lee and his mulatto stepson were sitting near the depot eating breakfast and waiting for a train to go to Illinois. The Sheriff got the drop on them. Lee threw up his hands and said: "I am Sam Lee. I shot Bill Warford because he was too intimate with my wife." The Lee woman raises and sells garden truck, and has a large business. Warford is the second man killed on her account. In 1874 she had Pat Kelly, a negro, arrested on a charge of assaulting her. Kelly was tried and hanged. Since then Mrs. Lee has had two mulatto children. During the time between Pat Kelly's hanging and the time she married, she had to sleep every night on a flat-board anchored in the middle of the Cumberland River for fear the negroes would lynch her.

Iowa Coal Miners' Strike Ended.
DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 30.—The Iowa coal miners' strike about a month ago for four cents, and have held out pluckily. The local demand sent up the price of coal, and after the operators vainly offered four cents, conditioned on the leaders of the strike being discharged, they yielded this point, and no further friction was expected this winter. Operators claim that the month's idleness has prevented them from taking Minnesota and Dakota orders, and they predict a smaller output than last year.

Kate Smalley Still Fastening.
FORT PLAIN, N. Y., Sept. 30.—There is no doubt that Kate Smalley is nearing her end. Everything appears dark before her eyes, and her voice is becoming much weaker and indistinct. This is the 29th day of her alleged fast.

Following Victoria's Example.
NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—Miss Roua Sickles, the daughter of George G. Sickles, who eloped a week ago from New Rochelle with Mr. William Mead, and was married in Brooklyn, was remarried yesterday by the Rev. Father Loughlin, in New Rochelle.

Blown Up.
WILMINGTON, Del., Sept. 30.—A rolling mill in the Dupont powder yards blew up at 5:30 Tuesday afternoon with a terrific report. Telephone messages stated that no person was hurt, but that the roof of the mill was torn to fragments.
